

It is not fair to attack a successful business that has better ideas than the companies lobbying against XM. Let XM Satellite Radio keep using their first amendment rights